DYNAMITE ENOUGH TO BLOW UP BIG MILLS CARRIED IN SUITCASE

Man Placed Under Arrest at Monessen For Having Explosive and Fuse in His Possession

INVESTIGATING MATTER

Seventy-Two Sticks Contained in Ordinary Traveling-Bag--Fuse Found in Inside Pocket of Clothing

Seventy-two sticks of dynamite, or enough to blow up the big Monessen mills and a roll of fuse were found in the possession of a man giving his name of George Bridges, when he was arrested at Monessen on Monday. The dynamite was contained in a suit case together with two quarts of whiskey and the fuse Bridges carried in his pocket. His arrest followed a remark he let drop while in the bar of the Merchants' Hotel. Police of Monessen are now conducting a careful investigation into the affair, pending a formal charge. It is belived that startling complications will develop.

Bridges it is stated, has been living with his brother, Jack Bridges at Monessen for some months but apparently has not been doing anything to earn a livelihood. At the Merchants Hotel Monday after having consumed a quantity of liquor with noticeable effect, it is stated he mentioned something about some dynamite he had in his suit case. James Watkins was standing directly behind the man and he immediately went for the police. Bridges was followed to the Grand Hotel where he was arrested in the bar room.

Taken to the police station his suit case was opened and he was searched The dynamite and whiskey, it is stated were found neatly packed in the suit case and the fuse was concealed, it is said in an inside pocket. Bridges said he had been given the suit case by a man at the lower end of town. When asked if he was intending to repeat the McNamara performance he is said to have answered "No, not me."

The man's brother, Jack Bridges is a bartender who was concerned in a recent bartnders' strike at Monessen. During the time George Bridges the arrested man has been in the neighborhood he has made frequent trips to Donora and Webster, it is stated. It is the impression among a number of Monessen people that a demonstration was to be made against the big non-union Monessen mills, not by the rank and file of organized labor, but by the "outlaws, of the McNamara type. There is a question whether Bridges was concerned in any such supposed movement or not. Coming so soon after the confession of the McNamaras' wholesale dynamiting at non-union plants there are lots of suspicions of a varied nature. The fact that Monessen and Donora are decidedly non-union and would be considered good operating fields for the "outlaw" element, gives rise to numerous conjectures.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM IN LOCAL CHURCHES

Entertainments by Little Folks Feature--Treats Distributed by the Various Sunday Schools

Charleroi churches celebrated Christmas in much the same manner as usual. Treats were distributed among the Sunday school pupils and Santa Claus entertainments were features. In all the churches where entertainments were held either on Sunday or Monday, music was a feature. Christmas sermons were preached Sunday morning and evening by the different ministers.

At St. Jerome's Catholic church the celebration of Christmas began on Sunday afternoon when the treat was distributed to the children. On Christmas day there were a number of masses held. At the Christian church a Christmas program consisting of the usual numbers was rendered following the Sunday school service Sunday morning.

St. Mary's Episcopal church celebrated Christmas with services Monday morning. Their treat will be distributed Thursday. There was a "Story and Song" service at the Washington avenue church Sunday evening. A Christmas program was rendered and the treat distributed at the French Presbyterian church on Monday evening and at the Christ Lutheran church a special Christmas service "The Angelic Chorus" was held on Sunday evening. The treat there was distributed at the Sunday school session.

Three Christmas services were held at the Methodist Episcopal church, the first on Sunday morning. Sunday evening a children's program was given and on Christmas morning an hour's choral service was a feature. The Christmas treat was given at the Monday morning service. Recitations by little folks featured the program at the Baptist church Sunday evening, when a Santa Claus distributed candy among the Sunday school pupils.

Prof I. T. Daniel had charge of the Christmas service at the First Presbyterian church, which took place on Sunday evening. Songs, recitations, and duets were features. A concert by the choir was given at St. James' A. M. E. church in lieu of a little folks' entertainment Sunday evening.

Much interest was shown in the Christmas exercises, good sized crowds attending the various services.

SIGNAL SYSTEM

Electrical Device for Blocks on the P. & L. E.

FOR THE NEWELL YARDS

Automatic block signals will be installed shortly by the Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroad on its line between Dickerson Run and Connellsville and between Roscoe and East California. Yards of the P. &. L. E. are at Dickerson Run and on the Monongahela division at Newell, between Roscoe and East California. The automatic block signal system is one employed along the big trunk lines and at the larger cities. The system has not been used on the Monongahela division of either the Pennsylvania or the P. & L. E. railroad except near Pittsburg. Signals are operated by electricity.

Books Should Be Passed.

Complaint is made by members of the neighborhood book club that in some instances books are not passed promptly. The regulation is that all books must be passed each Saturday night. A failure to comply with this causes confusion, and all members are requested to make a special effort to pass the books promptly at the specified time.

SMITH IS ARRESTED

Former Officer Must Answer Charge of Highway Robbery

LOCATED AT HIS HOME

After successfully eluding for several days the state police, who had a warrant for his arrest on a charge of highway robbery, Detective Harry Smith of the P. V. & C| railroad force, was placed under arrest Monday morning at 2:30 o'clock by Sergeant Dent and Trooper Young.

The charges are preferred by Chas. Croft, of California, who alleges that Smith with Constable John W. Sarver of Monongahela held him up near California and relieved him of $23. Sarver had been taken in custody previously but Smith had managed to elude the State troopers until Monday morning.

Smith on Saturday tried to surrender to Sheriff John Murphy at Washington but the latter told the detective he must give himself up to the men who had the papers for his arrest. Learning that Smith had gone to Pittsburg and suspecting he would return to California Sunday night Sergeant Dent and Trooper Young took a street car to Roscoe and walked from that place to California. They watched the house in which Smith lives and finally deciding he was at home rapped. After asking several questions the fugitive opened the door himself. He submitted to the arrest quietly and was taken before Alderman Ellwood at Monongahela who held him for court. He was taken to the county jail by Trooper Young.

Euchre and Dance Tonight.

A euchre and dance will be held at the Bank of Charleroi Hall tonight for the benefit of the Italian Catholic church. Owing to a misunderstanding announcement was made in Saturday's issue that the affair would be held Thursday night. This was an error, and the function will take place tonight to which the public is corlially invited.

MONESSEN HAS SAY ON MATTER

Will Continue Movement to Get People to Move There

CHARLEROI TO SUFFER

Because Charleroi is a much better residence town than Monessen, and because many people who work in the town across the river prefer to live here, the Monessen business people have started a movement designed to induce those who earn their living there to also make that town their place of residence. The Mail made public this movement, and because it did so the Monessen Independent assumes that Charleroi is envious of Monessen. It says:

"Charleroi feels the blow that may come to it through efforts that are to be made here to better conditions of the workingman. It has long been known that neither Charleroi nor Belle Vernon could survive if it were not for the big mills of Monessen working time and over time and creating big pay rolls, much of which goes to sustain these towns.

"Through efforts of our big corporations and the spirit of our mill managers together with the general good feeling and co-operation of our merchants and professional men it has been possible for this town to maintain its prosperity through all vicissitudes of commercial and industrial conditions. It is only natural then that the patriotic spirit should characterize the people here whether they be business men, workers in the mills or men at the head of the industries. The feeling is general that men who earn their living in Monessen should be a part of the town. Of course this investigation started by the Board of Trade at the head of which is one of our prominent mill superintendents has scared Charleroi into a spasm of protest for it may mean a blow to that town, they may lose some of the Monessen people who live over there, for it is believed they would rather live here, all things being equal.

"It is known the country over that Charleroi is an unfavorable spot for industrial activity. Labor troubles have characterized the town until capital will no longer dwell there.

"We hasten to assure our envious neighbor that this investigation will go on, protests from outsiders to the contrary."

MERCHANTS EXPERIENCE HEAVY CHRISTMAS TRADE

Red Cross Stamps Sell

About 2,000 Disposed of During Season They Were on Sale Here

Tomorrow the Red Cross Seal Campaign throughout the State will be at an end. The six thousand persons who have been selling the seals will count the pennies which have come in and report to the Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis the results of their work.

The First National Bank was the only place in town where the Red Cross seals were sold, and Cashier R. H. Rush reports that in the neighborhood of 2,000 were disposed to people interested in helping along the work of stamping out the Great White Plague.

ELEVEN ARRESTS

Dog Fight Results in Number Being Pulled on Christmas

DRUNKS THE MAJORITY

While Christmas was a comparatively quiet day here, still there was plenty of work for the police. Eleven arrests were made in all, four of them being over a dog fight which occurred during the afternoon at the corner of Fallowfield avenue and Fifth street.

From the story told a dog belonging to an American and a couple other dogs got into a scrap. The American tried to pull his dog out of the melee but made the mistake of kicking another of the dogs. A foreigner took up the matter. The result was an argument and then fisticuffs. Four were implicated and they were arrested. A hearing was to have been held Christmas night but Burgess Risbeck after some investigation continued the matter until tonight.

Two colored men got into an altercation at the railroad station and were arrested. On Sunday there were three arrests made.

WEDDING OCCURS AT YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO

Shoppers From Nearby Towns Made Saturday Break Record

POSTCARD SALE LARGE

Twelve Thousand Sold by One Dealer--How Christmas Day Was Spent

Despite the repeated admonitions to "shop early,' and the absence of the real old fashioned article of Christmas weather, the final rush in Charleroi Saturday in many instances broke all previous records. Not since the good old days of when Vesta mine was running full and employing a thousand men was there such a shopping crowd in town on a Saturday night. Business in many stores was simply overwhelmed.

Bad weather during the week held this trade back in a measure, but the real cause was that the Christmas pay of the mines and mills was made on Saturday. Then there was immediately an exodus from up and down the river—particularly the former district—for Charleroi. Shortly after 6 o'clock the vanguard of shoppers began to arrive, and by 7 o'clock the stores were packed and jammed. Many found their supply of clerks inadequate, and extra help was impressed by a number of merchants from the ranks of the visitors.

George S. Might reports that he had the largest Christmas trade in the history of his store. One of the surprising features was the large sales of post cards, over 12,000 of these articles being disposed of during the past ten days. J. W. Berryman & Son report the largest day's sales Saturday in the history of their store, while Kirk and Clark report an unprecedented day in trade. The clothiers and shoe men also report a heavy trade throughout the entire week. All other stores where fancy articles, toys and confectionary were sold were also overwhelmed, some of the merchants tearing down the decorations and evergreens they had used themselves to sell to customers.

Sunday was of course a busy day in the churches, where the Christmas exercises, treats for Sunday school children and other observances were carried out. Monday was generly quiet. Business was suspended, generally and the theatres and other places of amusement did a thriving business. There was also much travel on both the railroad and the trolley lines by people coming and going from the town. The weather was mild and balmy and the sun shone beautifully all day, with almost a a summer temperature, giving the impression that it was Easter instead of Christmas. Altogether it was a most enjoyable day for the great majority of people, and there was evidence on every side of abundance of Christmas cheer.

See "The Cowboy Pugilist" at the Star Theatre on Friday and "The Golden Wedding" on Saturday. Both big features. 126-t4

A MATTER OF HUSTLE

The attempt of the Monessen business people to induce those who work in that town to move there is but in accord with any movement designed and executed for the improvement and advancement of a community As perhaps two or three hundred people who work in Monessen live in Charleroi, this action on the part of the Monessen business people is resented to some extent by the business people here as an effort to build up Monessen at the expense of Charleroi.

From a business standpoint Charleroi has no kick coming. The movement serves to show where Charleroi is lacking and emphasizes the necessity of action here to offset conditions which work to the benefit of Monessen. The mere fact that two or three hundred Charleroi people earn their living in Monessen shows that opportunity is lacking here to employ them. That being the case, it is up to Charleroi to try to provide employment for all its citizens so that none will be forced to the trouble and extra expense of being obliged to seek employment out of town

Another commendable thing Monessen business people are doing is seeking the cause why people employed there are not moving to the town. It is generally conceded that rents are too high, and the Monessen people it is understood are trying to bring about a reduction. Other civic movements are planned, it is stated, that will tend to make Monessen a still more desirable place of residence. Monessen has a big advantage in the way of affording employment, and if there are drawbacks as a place of residence, nothing is more natural that those interested should seek to remove them.

Monessen is doing nothing reprehensible in seeking to induce the people they employ to also make their homes there. On the contrary the movement shows enterprise and spirit, which are always essential elements in material progress. Charleroi has the same opportunity to maintain her standing and prestige, and if our people sit still while Monessen hustles, cause will follow effect as inevitable as night follows day.

NO REGRETS

Christmas has come and gone, and the glad Yuletide should carry with it no regrets. The Christmas spirit is so well established now, that the efforts made for the enjoyment of the day are most fruitful of results. The gifts bestowed and the money expended are generally prompted by the bonds of love, affection and friendship, and these kindly acts carry with them the spirit of peace and good will. This has a beneficient effort upon society, the effect of which is more or less lasting.

For this reason there should be no regrets over Christmas expenditures. While it may be possible that in the exuberance of the festive occasion some exceeded the bonds of prudence, counting the cost afterward takes away the joy of giving. To such it can be commanded, make up by thrift and dilligence whatever deficiency may exist and let the effort be a joy and pleasure in the same spirit in which the expenditure was made. The Christmas spirit means a whole lot to the civilized world, as well as the promotion of the great precepts of Christianity.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Christmas in this section was an anomaly, from the fact that instead of being "cold as Christmas" it was "warm as Easter." That didn't prevent a general enjoyment of the day, execpt to the small boy who by the irony of fate drew a sled or a pair of ice skates. It was somewhat amusing to see little fellows hauling a brand new sled along the stone and cement pavements in the bright sunshine, with the other small boy who carried a pair of skates, and surreptitiously clamped them on his feet and dulled the blades trying to preserve his equilibrium on the pavements. One youngster drew a spanking at home because he tore the shoe off his brand new sled, while hauling it along the bare ground.

The small girl was also much in evidence. The balmy weather permitted her to walk abroad and it was easy to tell what most of the dainty maidens drew in their Christmas stockings. Some were heavily arrayed in furs, and new wraps, while others were devoid of these trappings in order to display a new locket and chain suspended around their necks, or a watch conspicuously pinned on the bosoms of their gowns. The "little mothers" were also very much in evidence with their dolls and doll carriages, and the mild weather gave them ample opportunity to get the necessary out-door airing for these charges. The promenader on the streets had more of an opportunity than ever before to note the joys of Christmas.

"Those who have been asserting all the year that there is no longer any trade from the up-river district should have seen the crowds waiting for trains and street cars Saturday night," said a Charleroi business man this morning. "I haven't seen such a crowd in town from up the river since the good old days of several years ago, when such a crowd came spontaneously every Saturday night. Of course the Christmas rush was responsible for the immense throng that came to town to do their shopping, but it demonstrated that the out of town trade still exists, if our business people will make the proper effort to induce it to come to town regularly. Saturday night I saw five loaded cars start up the river with people hanging onto the steps and hand rails, without making any perceptible diminution of the crowds at Fifth street who were waiting a chance to get a car. This is sufficient to convince me that the out of town trade is still considerable if it could be regularly bunched in Charleroi as it used to be."

Lightning Kills Few.

In 1906 lightning killed only 169 people in this whole country. One's chances of death by lightning are less than two in a million. The chance of death from liver, kidney or stomach trouble is vastly greater, but not if Electric Bitters be used, as Robert Madsen of West Burlington, Ia., proved. Four doctors gave him up after eight months of suffering from virulent liver trouble and yellow jaundice. He was then completely cured by Electric Bitters. They're the best stomach, liver and kidney remedy and blood purifier on earth. Only 50c at W. F. Hennings.

WOMAN ARRESTED FOR DRUNKENNESS

Lying on a porch at the corner of Eighth street and Fallowfield avenue a drunken woman was arrested by the police this morning. She was fiast asleep when found there. When awakened and told she must accompany the police she refused, but the automobile police patrol attracted her eye and she gladly consented if she get to ride in the buzz wagon. She was placed in a cell at the lockup to sleep off the effects of her Christmas drunk. It is stated that she is from Pittsburg.

BASKETS OF FOOD ARE DISTRIBUTED

Baskets of clothing and food for the poor were distributed Sunday evening and Monday morning by a committee appointed by the Loyal Order of Moose. The clothing and food was purchased with $50 which was donated for the purpose and a number of families were made happy. In the list of articles purchased there were 19 pairs of shoes.

DISHES FOR INVALIDS.

The following are dishes liked by invalids and are refreshing and nourishing. The manner of serving even a glass of lemonade is most important in a sick room. Attractiveness counts for more here than any other quality.

Hot Lemonade.—Shave the rind from a lemon using only the thin outer rind, pour over it one and a half cups of boiling water and let steep while the juice is extracted from the lemon; add this to the water with two tablespoonfuls of sugar, strain and serve at once. If allowed to cool it makes a strong lemonade.

Quick Beef Tea.—Put a half pound of lean round steak through the meat chopper and then into frying pan, heat slowly to extract the juice; turn into a potato ricer and squeeze out all the juice. This extract will need to be diluted before being served. If heated care should be taken not to over cook the albumen. Add salt to make it palatable. This meat may be used for croquettes or any dish with high seasoning.

Bread Gruel.—Take a cup of dried bread crumbs, simmer in a pint of water until smooth. Rub through a strainer, season lightly with salt and serve either hot or cold. For variety the crumbs may be browned first, or flavor with extract of beef, or reduce the water to one-half and fill the cup with cream or milk.

Spanish Cream.—Soak a half teaspoon of granulated gelatine in a cup of milk. After it is dissolved add a cup of sugar and a beaten egg yolk. Cook until the egg is thick, stirring constantly, add fifteen drops of vanilla and strain into a mold to cool.

Ice Cream.—Boil together five minutes a tablespoonful of sugar and two of water, add a cup of thin cream and a half teaspoonful of vanilla, mix well and pour into a pound baking powder can. Plunge into salt and ice in a large pail or bowl and open and beat well every five minutes. It will be frozen in fifteen minutes For those suffering from gastric inflammation, beef tea and soups are often tolerated if frozen like ice cream.

Shifting Ministers.

One of Wesley's reasons for shifting his preachers every three years was avowedly that they might be able to preach the same sermon over again to different congregations. He knew by experience the difficulty of sermon making. After a few weeks, he said, a preacher cannot find matter for preaching every morning and evening, nor will the people come to hear him, whereas if he never stays more than a portnight in one place he will find plenty of matter, and the people will hear him gladly. I know that were I to preach one whole year in one place I should preach both myself and my congregation to sleep.

Live Litterateur Resented.

"You don't seem to care for any authors except those of a previous generation."

"Well," replied Mr. Cumrox, "I am kind o' prejudiced in their favor. You see, there's no chance that mother an' the girls will invite 'em to parties to act supercilious and superior."

Big Sale of Women's Furs

The Joseph Horne Company, Pittsburgh, Announce that All Prices Have Been Reduced on Women's Fur Coats, Fur Muffs, Fur Neckpieces and Fur Sets in Stock

This is a Sale of Great Importance and Well Worth Making a Trip to Pittsburgh to Obtain the Advantages of.

¶ For the first time this year, and in accordance with the usual custom of this store, we are holding an After-Christmas Sale of women's furs, in which every piece of fur in stock is marked at lowered prices. Many people receive money for Christmas and they find this sale the best possible means of spending that money. One reason is that they can buy that which will last for many months; that which a great many people have for a long time been looking forward to owning.

¶ The advantages of buying at Horne's in Pittsburgh are many. You have larger variety from which to choose and, above all, you have the reputation of this store back of every piece of fur you buy. This is a reputation for reliability; a reputation that is a guarantee of quality. Should (in any event) the fur you buy prove unsatisfactory, Horne's will make it right. ¶ So, plan to visit Horne's this week and share in the great special values in this fur event. You are buying the furs that have been our own regular stocks. They are the finest that can be purchased anywhere in America, both as to style and quality of fur.

Long Fur Coats

Just to give an idea about the fur coats, we will say that we are selling splendid quality full-length Russian pony coats for as low as $35.00. Every other long fur coat is offered at a reduced price up to and including the finest sealskin coats.

Muffs Are Reduced in Price

In this sale you can buy a muff for as little as $4.50 or you can buy any other muff at a reduced price up to the finest, which is now $100.00.

Matched Fur Sets

Selling them for as little as $10.00 for those that have been $15.00 and $18.50. Every other fur set is reduced in price up to the finest Imperial sables that are now $1,000.00 a set for the first time this year.

Neckpieces Reduced in Price

Newest shape neckpieces now for as little as $4.50 and from that up to the finest quality priced at $150.00 for the first time this year.

This store's guarantee goes with every piece you buy, irrespective of the price. You get the same high class, courteous, prompt service, no matter what amount you wish to spend, and you get many different kinds of skins and all of the good styles from which to choose.

This sale will be in progress all this week, but it is advisable to get here To-Morrow, if possible, because many of the best bargains will be chosen in the first days of the sale.

SAVED DAUGHTERS LIFE

This Father Refused to Let His Daughter Die.

Here is a story with amoral that many parents might take to heart:

"My daughter was very pale, nerous, thin and suffered with severe pain in her back, so that we took her out of school. Her flesh became blue and she could not retain her urine. I spent over $100 for medicines but she grew worse. Finally I bought a bottle of Thompson's Barosma and she began to grow better right away. Five bottles of Thompson's Barosma made a complete cure and today she is a perfectly healthy girl. Thompson's Barosma saved her life, for she was failing so fast that death was not far off."—Frank D. Meeder, Pleasantville Pa.

If you are troubled with backache, sideache, weakness with backache, or any liver or kidney trouble, then it's time for Thompson's Barosma.

W. F. Henning's sells Thompson's Barosma in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00, and he guarantees it to cure Bright's disease, high colored urine, bed-wetting and all other kidney and liver diseases. It will make anyone vigorous in a few weeks, because it is a great tonic and maker of rich red blood. All druggists.

Untenable Ground.

"By the way, why do you permit your children to believe in fairies?" "I can't tell them there are no fairies and then expect them to believe in microbes."—Washington Herald.

In a Japanese Temple.

"Asakuse Temple is dedicated to the goddess Kwannon, a tiny image of gold, about two and a half inches high," writes a traveler in Japan. "At the entrance to the temple grounds on either side of the immense gate stand two large and fearful looking figures, guarding the sacred precincts. Hanging outside the wire grating are a number of sandals for their use if they wish to take a walk, and rice is sprinkled about. Each worshiper, before entering the temple, calls at a small building, and after contributing a small amount, washes his hands and rinses his mouth.

"In front of the main shrine is a large aperture in the floor, covered with lattice work, into which the worshiper casts his gift. After clapping his hands to awaken or attract the attention of the god he kneels, but his prayer is only brief. While there is one chief shrine, there are many others under the same roof.

"One shrine especially attracted my attention; it was made of wood, and quite disfigured and worn through the constant rubbing of hands on the spot corresponding to the afflicted portions of the sufferers' bodies."

How Do You Stand With the World?

SQUARE—or the other way? Got a lot of bills to meet, perhaps. If that is the case you probably want to get them out of the way by the first of the year. Easy enough, borrow the money from us, (your household goods will secure you) pay all the other fellows, keep credit good with them and then when the year is well started you can take care of our account. A monthly payment does it. It take much less of your salary than several bills would—it's all paid at one time and one place and every one is satisfied. You will be surprised to find how little this will cost you. BUSINESS ABSOLUTELY CONFIDENTIAL. Information cheerfully given. If unable to call, write or phone for our representative. MAGICS WINNERS

Southside Eclipsed by Local Boys in Fast Floor Game

GET LEAD IN SECOND

While Connellsville was busy sending Uniontown to second place and Johnstown was engaged in the task of acquiring first honors, Charleroi was occupied with tendering Southside a substantial defeat Christmas night. It was a nice Christmas present for Adams and his boys who led by just ten points when the gong sounded the end of the hard struggle. From the time when Adams made his first foul goal and started the scoring until he made his last foul goal and stopped the scoring the contest was one calculated to test the nerves of players, spectators and referee. Steel started the scoring for Southside shortly after Adams had thrown his first foul by a pretty field goal. Adams heaved the ball in the direction of the basket a number of times as well as did others but got only one from field this half. Jimsey Brown threw two field goals. The Southsiders put four field goals in the basket and the first half ended 14 to 13, favor Southside.

Apparently Charleroi had been saving up for the second half, while Southside had been going the limit. After the first five minutes of play field goals came in quick succession. Adams got two Jimsey Brown two, Allie Brown four and Herron, not to be slighted by Fate threw one in. Brady and his cohorts from Southside were not entirely lost. Toward the latter part of the game they scored four field goals. Lineup:

Charleroi—43		Southside—33
Adams	F	Brady
J. Brown	F	Franckel
A Brown	C	Steele
Pfeiffer	G	Penino
Herron	G	Henschel

Field goals—Adams 3, J. Brown 4, A. Brown 4, Herron, Brady 4, Frankel, Steel 5, Henschel. Foul goals—Adams 19 out of 22, Brady 11 out of 20. Referee—E. Davis.

ADAMS LEADING LEAGUE SCORER

Capt. Adams is still leading the Central league in scoring. Up to the Christmas layoff in 23 games he had scored 471 points against Kummer's 452. Wolhfarth leads the league in field goals with 84, but at that is only one ahead of Adams. Jimsey Brown has 70 field goals to his credit. Allie Brown 34, Herron 13, and Pfeiffer nine.

Team averages place Johnstown ahead, with Connellsville next and Charleroi third. Southside, Uniontown and Washington follow in order. Kummer is away ahead on foul shooting, with Fogarty, Sears, Adams, Brady and H. Snyder following in order.

WILL SHOW PICTURES OF "WAR AT TRIPOLI"

This afternoon and tonight at the Star Theatre will be shown pictures of the war at Tripoli. These pictures were taken at a great expense and with great danger to the moving picture men by one of the large companies and are said to be particularly fine. On Friday "The Cowboy Pugilist," and on Saturday "The Golden Wedding," both big features will be presented.

Turners Observe Christmas

Christmas was celebrated Monday evening by the Charleroi Turn Verein by a family gathering and general good time. A Christmas treat was given to the children in the parlors of the club house, while a musical program and dancing further enlivened the occasion.

BOWLING

The Crescents won two out of three games from the leaders on Christmas day. These were by far the most exciting games of the league to date as there is much rivalry between the two teams. The Stars and Venuses bowl Friday evening. Following is the score and standing of the league to date. Sharkey had high score also high average.

Among The Passers

Lance Riggs was not in uniform with Charleroi last night.

Those Charleroi guards, Pfeiffer, from Reading and Herron from Philadelphia, are showing better mettle every game.

Ferat has been found wanting and let go by Johnstown.

Connellsville has a hard schedule this week and Charleroi a comparatively easy one, which fact should help some in the local team's earnest striving for third place. The Cokers play Southside tonight and are at Johnstown Thursday. Charleroi has Washington tonight and is scheduled for Southside Saturday. Their hard game is with Uniontown here Friday.

Connellsville's 38-25 victory over Uniontown sounds hopeful. Wonder if we can't beat the Searians Friday?

DYNAMITE ENOUGH TO BLOW UP BIG MILLS CARRIED IN SUITCASE

Man Placed Under Arrest at Monessen For Having Explosive and Fuse in His Possession

INVESTIGATING MATTER

Seventy-Two Sticks Contained in Ordinary Traveling-Bag--Fuse Found in Inside Pocket of Clothing

Seventy-two sticks of dynamite, or enough to blow up the big Monessen mills and a roll of fuse were found in the possession of a man giving his name of George Bridges, when he was arrested at Monessen on Monday. The dynamite was contained in a suit case together with two quarts of whiskey and the fuse Bridges carried in his pocket. His arrest followed a remark he let drop while in the bar of the Merchants' Hotel. Police of Monessen are now conducting a careful investigation into the affair, pending a formal charge. It is belived that startling complications will develop.

Bridges it is stated, has been living with his brother, Jack Bridges at Monessen for some months but apparently has not been doing anything to earn a livelihood. At the Merchants Hotel Monday after having consumed a quantity of liquor with noticeable effect, it is stated he mentioned something about some dynamite he had in his suit case James Watkins was standing directly behind the man and he immediately went for the police. Bridges was followed to the Grand Hotel where he was arrested in the bar room.

Taken to the police station his suit case was opened and he was searched The dynamite and whiskey, it is stated were found neatly packed in the suit case and the fuse was concealed, it is said in an inside pocket. Bridges said he had been given the suit case by a man at the lower end of town. When asked if he was intending to repeat the McNamara performance he is said to have answered "No, not me."

The man's brother, Jack Bridges is a bartender who was concerned in a recent bartnders' strike at Monessen. During the time George Bridges the arrested man has been in the neighborhood he has made frequent trips to Donora and Webster, it is stated. It is the impression among a number of Monessen people that a demonstration was to be made against the big non-union Monessen mills, not by the rank and file of organized labor, but by the "outlaws, of the McNamara type. There is a question whether Bridges was concerned in any such supposed movement or not. Coming so soon after the confession of the McNamaras' wholesale dynamiting at non-union plants there are lots of suspicions of a varied nature The fact that Monessen and Donora are decidedly non-union and would be considered good operating fields for the "outlaw" element, gives rise to numerous conjectures.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM IN LOCAL CHURCHES

Entertainments by Little Folks Feature--Treats Distributed by the Various Sunday Schools

Charleroi churches celebrated Christmas in much the same manner as usual Treats were distributed among the Sunday school pupils and Santa Claus entertainments were features In all the churches where entertainments were held either on Sunday or Monday, music was a feature. Christmas sermons were preached Sunday morning and evening by the different ministers.

At St. Jerome's Catholic church the celebration of Christmas began on Sunday afternoon when the treat was distributed to the children. On Christmas day there were a number of masses held. At the Christian church a Christmas program consisting of the usual numbers was rendered following the Sunday school service Sunday morning.

St. Mary's Episcopal church celebrated Christmas with services Monday morning. Their treat will be distributed Thursday. There was a "Story and Song" service at the Washington avenue church Sunday evening. A Christmas program was rendered and the treat distributed at the French Presbyterian church on Monday evening and at the Christ Lutheran church a special Christmas service 'The Angelic Chorus' was held on Sunday evening. The treat there was distributed at the Sunday school session.

Three Christmas services were held at the Methodist Episcopal church. the first on Sunday morning. Sunday evening a children's program was given and on Christmas morning an hour's choral service was a feature The Christmas treat was given at the Monday morning service. Recitations by little folks featured the program at the Baptist church Sunday evening, when a Santa Claus distributed candy among the Sunday school pupils.

Prof I. T. Daniel had charge of the Christmas service at the First Presbyterian church, which took place on Sunday evening. Songs, recitations, and duets were features. A concert by the choir was given at St. James' A. M. E. church in lieu of a little folks' entertainment Sunday evening.

Much interest was shown in the Christmas exercises, good sized crowds attending the various services.

SIGNAL SYSTEM

Electrical Device for Blocks on the P. & L. E.

FOR THE NEWELL YARDS

Automatic block signals will be installed shortly by the Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroad on its line between Dickerson Run and Connellsville and between Roscoe and East California. Yards of the P. & L. E. are at Dickerson Run and on the Monongahela division at Newell, between Roscoe and East California. The automatic block signal system is one employed along the big trunk lines and at the larger cities. The system has not been used on the Monongahela division of either the Pennsylvania or the P. & L. E. railroad except near Pittsburg. Signals are operated by electricity.

Books Should Be Passed.

Complaint is made by members of the neighborhood book club that in some instances books are not passed promptly. The regulation is that all books must be passed each Saturday night. A failure to comply with this causes confusion, and all members are requested to make a special effort to pass the books promptly at the specified time.

SMITH IS ARRESTED

Former Officer Must Answer Charge of Highway Robbery

LOCATED AT HIS HOME

After successfully eluding for several days the state police, who had a warrant for his arrest on a charge of highway robbery, Detective Harry Smith of the P. V. & C railroad force. was placed under arrest Monday morning at 2:30 o'clock by Sergeant Dent and Trooper Young.

The charges are preferred by Chas. Croft, of California, who alleges that Smith with Constable John W. Sarver of Monongahela held him up near California and relieved him of $23. Sarver had been taken in custody previously but Smith had managed to elude the State troopers until Monday morning.

Smith on Saturday tried to surrender to Sheriff John Murphy at Washington but the latter told the detective he must give himself up to the men who had the papers for his arrest. Learning that Smith had gone to Pittsburg and suspecting he would return to California Sunday night Sergeant Dent and Trooper Young took a street car to Roscoe and walked from that place to California They watched the house in which Smith lives and finally deciding he was at home rapped. After asking several questions the fugitive opened the door himself. He submitted to the arrest quietly and was taken before Alderman Ellwood at Monongahela who held him for court. He was taken to the county jail by Trooper Young.

MONESSEN HAS SAY ON MATTER

Will Continue Movement to Get People to Move There

CHARLEROI TO SUFFER

Because Charleroi is a much better residence town than Monessen, and because many people who work in the town across the river prefer to live there, the Monessen business people have started a movement designed to induce those who earn their living there to also make that town their place of residence. The Mail made public this movement, and because it did so the Monessen Independent assumes that Charleroi is envious of Monessen. It says:

"Charleroi feels the blow that may come to it through efforts that are to be made here to better conditions of the workingman. It has long been known that neither Charleroi nor Belle Vernon could survive if it were not for the big mills of Monessen working time and over time and creating big pay rolls, much of which goes to sustain these towns.

"Through efforts of our big corporations and the spirit of our mill managers together with the general good feeling and co-operation of our merchants and professional men it has been possible for this town to maintain its prosperity through all vicissitudes of commercial and industrial conditions. It is only natural then that the patriotic spirit should characterize the people here whether they be business men, workers in the mills or men at the head of the industries. The feeling is general that men who earn their living in Monessen should be a part of the town. Of course this investigation started by the Board of Trade at the head of which is one of our prominent mill superintendents has scared Charleroi into a spasm of protest for it may mean a blow to that town, they may lose some of the Monessen people who live over there, for it is believed they would rather live here, all things being equal.

"It is known the country over that Charleroi is an unfavorable spot for industrial activity. Labor troubles have characterized the town until capital will no longer dwell there.

"We hasten to assure our envious neighbor that this investigation will go on, protests from outsiders to the contrary."

MERCHANTS EXPERIENCE HEAVY CHRISTMAS TRADE

Red Cross Stamps Sell

About 2,000 Disposed of During Season They Were on Sale Here

Tomorrow the Red Cross Seal [illegible] be at an end The six thousand persons who have been selling the seals will count the pennies which have come in and report to the Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis the results of their work.

The First National Bank was the only place in town where the Red Cross seals were sold, and Cashier R H. Rush reports that in the neighborhood of 2,000 were disposed to people interested in helping along the work of stamping out the Great White Plague.

ELEVEN ARRESTS

Dog Fight Results in Number Being Pulled on Christmas

DRUNKS THE MAJORITY

While Christmas was a comparatively quiet day here, still there was plenty of work for the police. Eleven arrests were made in all, four of them being over a dog fight which occurred during the afternoon at the corner of Fallowfield avenue and Fifth street.

From the story told a dog belonging to an American and a couple other dogs got into a scrap The American tried to pull his dog out of the melee but made the mistake of kicking another of the dogs. A foreigner took up the matter. The result was an argument and then fisticuffs. Four were implicated and they were arrested. A hearing was to have been held Christmas night but Burgess Risbeck after some investigation continued the matter until tonight.

Two colored men got into an altercation at the railroad station and were arrested. On Sunday there were three arrests made.

WEDDING OCCURS AT YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO

Word has been received of the wedding at Youngstown, Ohio of Miss Anna Cratty a former Charleroi young woman, and James E. Neville of Youngstown. The couple were married on Saturday evening, December 16. It is supposed they will live at Youngstown.

Shoppers From Nearby Towns Made Saturday Break Record

POSTCARD SALE LARGE

Twelve Thousand Sold by One Dealer--How Christmas Day Was Spent

Despite the repeated admonitions to "shop early,' and the absence of the real old fashioned article of Christmas weather, the final rush in Charleroi Saturday in many instances broke all previous records Not since the good old days of when Vesta mine was running full and employing a thousand men was there such a shopping crowd in town on a Saturday night. Business in many stores was simply overwhelmed

Bad weather during the week held this trade back in a measure, but the real cause was that the Christmas pay of the mines and mills was made on Saturday. Then there was immediately an exodus from up and down the river—particularly the former district—for Charleroi. Shortly after 6 o'clock the vanguard of shoppers began to arrive, and by 7 o'clock the stores were packed and jammed. Many found their supply of clerks inadequate, and extra help was impressed by a number of merchants from the ranks of the visitors.

George S. Might reports that he had the largest Christmas trade in the history of his store. One of the surprising features was the large sales of post cards, over 12,000 of these articles being disposed of during the past ten days. J. W. Berryman & Son report the largest day's sales Saturday in the history of their store, while Kirk and Clark report an unprecedented day in trade. The clothiers and shoe men also report a heavy trade throughout the entire week. All other stores where fancy articles, toys and confectionary were sold were also overwhelmed, some of the merchants tearing down the decorations and evergreens they had used themselves to sell to customers.

Sunday was of course a busy day in the churches, where the Christmas exercises, treats for Sunday school children and other observances were carried out. Monday was generly quiet. Business was suspended, generally and the theatres and other places of amusement did a thriving business. There was also much travel on both the railroad and the trolley lines by people coming and going from the town. The weather was mild and balmy and the sun shone beautifully all day, with almost a a summer temperature, giving the impression that it was Easter instead of Christmas. Altogether it was a most enjoyable day for the great majority of people, and there was evidence on every side of abundance of Christmas cheer.

See "The Cowboy Pugilist" at the Star Theatre on Friday and "The Golden Wedding" on Saturday. Both big features. 126-t4

A MATTER OF HUSTLE

The attempt of the Monessen business people to induce those who work in that town to move there is but in accord with any movement designed and executed for the improvement and advancement of a community As perhaps two or three hundred people who work in Monessen live in Charleroi, this action on the part of the Monessen business people is resented to some extent by the business people here as an effort to build up Monessen at the expense of Charleroi.

From a business standpoint Charleroi has no kick coming. The movement serves to show where Charleroi is lacking and emphasizes the necessity of action here to offset conditions which work to the benefit of Monessen The mere fact that two or three hundred Charleroi people earn their living in Monessen shows that opportunity is lacking here to employ them. That being the case, it is up to Charleroi to try to provide employment for all its citizens so that none will be forced to the trouble and extra expense of being obliged to seek employment out of town

Another commendable thing Monessen business people are doing is seeking the cause why people employed there are not moving to the town. It is generally conceded that rents are too high, and the Monessen people it is understood are trying to bring about a reduction. Other civic movements are planned, it is stated, that will tend to make Monessen a still more desirable place of residence. Monessen has a big advantage in the way of affording employment, and if there are drawbacks as a place of residence, nothing is more natural that those interested should seek to remove them.

Monessen is doing nothing reprehensible in seeking to induce the people they employ to also make their homes there. On the contrary the movement shows enterprise and spirit, which are always essential elements in material progress. Charleroi has the same opportunity to maintain her standing and prestige, and if our people sit still while Monessen hustles, cause will follow effect as inevitable as night follows day.

NO REGRETS

Christmas has come and gone, and [illegible] it no regrets The Christmas spirit is so well established now, that the efforts made for the enjoyment of the day are most fruitful of results. The gifts bestowed and the money expended are generally prompted by the bonds of love, affection and friendship, and these kindly acts carry with them the spirit of peace and good will. This has a beneficient effort upon society, the effect of which is more or less lasting.

For this reason there should be no regrets over Christmas expenditures While it may be possible that in the exuberance of the festive occasion some exceeded the bonds of prudence, counting the cost afterward takes away the joy of giving. To such it can be commanded, make up by thrift and dilligence whatever deficiency may exist and let the effort be a joy and pleasure in the same spirit in which the expenditure was made. The Christmas spirit means a whole lot to the civilized world, as well as the promotion of the great precepts of Christianity.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Christmas in this section was an anomaly, from the fact that instead of being "cold as Christmas" it was "warm as Easter." That didn't prevent a general enjoyment of the day, execpt to the small boy who by the irony of fate drew a sled or a pair of ice skates It was somewhat amusing to see little fellows hauling a brand new sled along the stone and cement pavements in the bright sunshine, with the other small boy who carried a pair of skates, and surreptitiously clamped them on his feet and dulled the blades trying to preserve his equilibrium on the pavements. One youngster drew a spanking at home because he tore the shoe off his brand new sled, while hauling it along the bare ground.

The small girl was also much in evidence. The balmy weather permitted her to walk abroad and it was easy to tell what most of the dainty maidens drew in their Christmas stockings. Some were heavily arrayed in furs, and new wraps, while others were devoid of these trappings in order to display a new locket and chain suspended around their necks or a watch conspicuously pinned on the bosoms of their gowns. The "little mothers" were also very much in evidence with their dolls and doll carriages, and the mild weather gave them ample opportunity to get the necessary out-door airing for these charges. The promenader on the streets had more of an opportunity than ever before to note the joys of Christmas.

"Those who have been asserting all the year that there is no longer any trade from the up-river district should have seen the crowds waiting for trains and street cars Saturday night," said a Charleroi business man this morning. "I haven't seen such a crowd in town from up the river since the good old days of several years ago, when such a crowd came spontaneously every Saturday night Of course the Christmas rush was responsible for the immense throng that came to town to do their shopping, but it demonstrated that the out of town trade still exists, if our business people will make the proper effort to induce it to come to town regularly Saturday night I saw five loaded cars start up the river with people hanging onto the steps and hand rails, without making any perceptible diminution of the crowds at Fifth street who were waiting a chance to get a car. This is sufficient to convince me that the out of town trade is still considerable if it could be regularly bunched in Charleroi as it used to be."

Sold Everywhere. In boxes 10c. and 25c.

Lightning Kills Few.

In 1906 lightning killed only 169 people in this whole country. One's chances of death by lightning are less than two in a million. The chance of death from liver, kidney or stomach trouble is vastly greater, but not if Electric Bitters be used, as Robert Madsen of West Burlington, Ia., proved. Four doctors gave him up after eight months of suffering from virulent liver trouble and yellow jaundice. He was then completely cured by Electric Bitters. They're the best stomach, liver and kidney remedy and blood purifier on earth. Only 50c at W. F. Hennings.

DISHES FOR INVALIDS.

The following are dishes liked by invalids and are refreshing and nourishing. The manner of serving even a glass of lemonade is most important in a sick room. Attractiveness counts for more here than any other quality.

Hot Lemonade.—Shave the rind from a lemon using only the thin outer rind, pour over it one and a half cups of boiling water and let steep while the juice is extracted from the lemon; add this to the water with two tablespoonfuls of sugar, strain and serve at once. If allowed to cool it makes a strong lemonade.

Quick Beef Tea.—Put a half pound of lean round steak through the meat chopper and then into frying pan, heat slowly to extract the juice, turn into a potato ricer and squeeze out all the juice. This extract will need to be diluted before being served. If heated care should be taken not to over cook the albumen. Add salt to make it palatable. This meat may be used for croquettes or any dish with high seasoning.

Bread Gruel.—Take a cup of dried bread crumbs, simmer in a pint of water until smooth. Rub through a strainer, season lightly with salt and serve either hot or cold. For variety the crumbs may be browned first, or flavor with extract of beef, or reduce the water to one half and fill the cup with cream or milk.

Spanish Cream.—Soak a half teaspoon of granulated gelatine in a cup of milk. After it is dissolved add a cup of sugar and a beaten egg yolk. Cook until the egg is thick, stirring constantly, add fifteen drops of vanilla and strain into a mold to cool.

Ice Cream.—Boil together five minutes a tablespoonful of sugar and two of water, add a cup of thin cream and a half teaspoonful of vanilla, mix well and pour into a pound baking powder can. Plunge into salt and ice in a large pail or bowl and open and beat well every five minutes. It will be frozen in fifteen minutes. For those suffering from gastric inflammation, beef tea and soups are often tolerated if frozen like ice cream.

Shifting Ministers.

One of Wesley's reasons for shifting his preachers every three years was avowedly that they might be able to preach the same sermon over again to different congregations. He knew by experience the difficulty of sermon making. After a few weeks, he said, a preacher cannot find matter for preaching every morning and evening, nor will the people come to hear him, whereas if he never stays more than a fortnight in one place he will find plenty of matter, and the people will hear him gladly. I know that were I to preach one whole year in one place I should preach both myself and my congregation to sleep.

"Well," replied Mr. Cumrox, "I am kind o' prejudiced in their favor. You see, there's no chance that mother an' the girls will invite 'em to parties to act supercilious and superior."

Big Sale of Women's Furs

The Joseph Horne Company, Pittsburgh, Announce that All Prices Have Been Reduced on Women's Fur Coats, Fur Muffs, Fur Neckpieces and Fur Sets in Stock

This is a Sale of Great Importance and Well Worth Making a Trip to Pittsburgh to Obtain the Advantages of.

¶ For the first time this year, and in accordance with the usual custom of this store, we are holding an After-Christmas Sale of women's furs, in which every piece of fur in stock is marked at lowered prices. Many people receive money for Christmas and they find this sale the best possible means of spending that money. One reason is that they can buy that which will last for many months; that which a great many people have for a long time been looking forward to owning.

¶ The advantages of buying at Horne's in Pittsburgh are many. You have larger variety from which to choose and, above all, you have the reputation of this store back of every piece of fur you buy. This is a reputation for reliability; a reputation that is a guarantee of quality. Should (in any event) the fur you buy prove unsatisfactory, Horne's will make it right. ¶ So, plan to visit Horne's this week and share in the great special values in this fur event. You are buying the furs that have been our own regular stocks. They are the finest that can be purchased anywhere in America, both as to style and quality of fur.

Long Fur Coats

Just to give an idea about the fur coats, we will say that we are selling splendid quality full-length Russian pony coats for as low as $35.00. Every other long fur coat is offered at a reduced price up to and including the finest sealskin coats.

Muffs Are Reduced in Price

In this sale you can buy a muff for as little as $4.50 or you can buy any other muff at a reduced price up to the finest, which is now $100.00.

Matched Fur Sets

Selling them for as little as $10.00 for those that have been $15.00 and $18.50. Every other fur set is reduced in price up to the finest Imperial sables that are now $1,000.00 a set for the first time this year.

SAVED DAUGHTERS LIFE

This Father Refused to Let His Daughter Die.

Here is a story with amoral that many parents might take to heart:

"My daughter was very pale, nervous, thin and suffered with severe pain in her back, so that we took her out of school. Her flesh became blue and she could not retain her urine. I spent over $100 for medicines but she grew worse. Finally I bought a bottle of Thompson's Barosma and she began to grow better right away. Five bottles of Thompson's Barosma made a complete cure and today she is a perfectly healthy girl. Thompson's Barosma saved her life, for she was failing so fast that death was not far off."—Frank D. Meeder, Pleasantville Pa.

If you are troubled with backache, sideache, weakness with backache, or any liver or kidney trouble, then it's time for Thompson's Barosma. W. F. Henning's sells Thompson's Barosma in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00, and he guarantees it to cure Bright's disease, high colored urine, bed-wetting and all other kidney and liver diseases. It will make anyone vigorous in a few weeks, because it is a great tonic and maker of rich red blood. All druggists.

Untenable Ground.

"By the way, why do you permit your children to believe in fairies?" "I can't tell them there are no fairies and then expect them to believe in microbes."—Washington Herald.

In a Japanese Temple.

"Asakuse Temple is dedicated to the goddess Kwannon, a tiny image of gold, about two and a half inches high," writes a traveler in Japan. "At the entrance to the temple grounds on either side of the immense gate stand two large and fearful looking figures, guarding the sacred precincts. Hanging outside the wire grating are a number of sandals for their use if they wish to take a walk, and rice is sprinkled about. Each worshiper, before entering the temple, calls at a small building, and after contributing a small amount, washes his hands and rinses his mouth.

"In front of the main shrine is a large aperture in the floor, covered with lattice work, into which the worshiper casts his gift. After clapping his hands to awaken or attract the attention of the god he kneels, but his prayer is only brief. While there is one chief shrine, there are many others under the same roof.

"One shrine especially attracted my attention; it was made of wood, and quite disfigured and worn through the constant rubbing of hands on the spot corresponding to the afflicted portions of the sufferers' bodies."

How Do You Stand With the World?

SQUARE—or the other way? Got a lot of bills to meet, —perhaps. If that is the case you probably want to get them out of the way by the first of the year. Easy enough, borrow the money from us, (your household goods will secure you) pay all the other fellows, keep credit good with them and then when the year is well started you can take care of our account. A monthly payment does it. It take much less of your salary than several bills would—it's all paid at one time and one place and every one is satisfied. You will be surprised to find how little this will cost you. BUSINESS ABSOLUTELY CONFIDENTIAL. Information cheerfully given. If unable to call, write or phone for our representative. We make loans anywhere within 20 miles of Charleroi.

MAGICS WINNERS

GET LEAD IN SECOND

While Connellsville was busy sending Uniontown to second place and Johnstown was engaged in the task of acquiring first honors, Charleroi was occupied with tendering Southside a substantial defeat Christmas night It was a nice Christmas present for Adams and his boys who led by just ten points when the gong sounded the end of the hard struggle. From the time when Adams made his first foul goal and started [illegible] foul goal and stopped the scoring the contest was one calculated to test the nerves of players, spectators and referee. Steel started the scoring for Southside shortly after Adams had thrown his first foul by a pretty field goal. Adams heaved the ball in the direction of the basket a number of times as well as did others but got only one from field this half. Jimsey Brown threw two field goals. The Southsiders put four field goals in the basket and the first half ended 14 to 13, favor Southside.

Apparently Charleroi had been saving up for the second half, while Southside had been going the limit. After the first five minutes of play field goals came in quick succession. Adams got two Jimsey Brown two, Allie Brown four and Herron, not to be slighted by Fate threw one in. Brady and his cohorts from Southside were not entirely lost Toward the latter part of the game they scored four field goals. Lineup:

Charleroi—43		Southside—33
Adams	F	Brady
J Brown	F	Frankel
A. Brown	C	Steele
Pfeiffer	G	Penino
Herron	G	Henschel

Field goals—Adams 3, J. Brown 4, A. Brown 4, Herron, Brady 4, Frankel, Steel 5, Henschel. Foul goals—Adams 19 out of 22, Brady 11 out of 20 Referee—E. Davis.

BOWLING

The Crescents won two out of three games from the leaders on Christmas day. These were by far the most exciting games of the league to date as there is much rivalry between the two teams. The Stars and Venuses bowl Friday evening. Following is the score and standing of the league to date. Sharkey had high score also high average.

ADAMS LEADING LEAGUE SCORER

Capt. Adams is still leading the Central league in scoring. Up to the Christmas layoff in 23 games he had scored 471 points against Kummer's 452. Wolhfarth leads the league in field goals with 84, but at that is only one ahead of Adams. Jimsey Brown has 70 field goals to his credit. Allie Brown 34, Herron 13, and Pfeiffer nine.

Team averages place Johnstown ahead, with Connellsville next and Charleroi third. Southside, Uniontown and Washington follow in order. Kummer is away ahead on foul shooting, with Fogarty, Sears, Adams, Brady and H. Snyder following in order.

WILL SHOW PICTURES OF "WAR AT TRIPOLI"

Turners Observe Christmas

Christmas was celebrated Monday evening by the Charleroi Turn Verein by a family gathering and general good time. A Christmas treat was given to the children in the parlors of the club house, while a musical program and dancing further enlivened the occasion.

SAVED!

Exclaims nearly every one of our customers as he pockets the change after purchasing his winter shoes.

DO YOU?

Want to save, Sir? Very well, then compare our $3.00 shoes with the shoes other stores sell you for the same money. Don't compare the prices, as prices mean nothing--but compare the SHOES. If you find our $3.00 shoes as good as other stores sell for $4.00, you make a saving don't you. Well, try it and see--for if you do, we believe you will come here and buy your shoes, put the change in your pocket and shout

"SAVED"

Just like the rest of the patrons. Investigate. Remember the word. Investigate.

Among The Passers

Lance Riggs was not in uniform with Charleroi last night

Those Charleroi guards, Pfeiffer, from Reading and Herron from Philadelphia, are showing better mettle every game.

Ferat has been found wanting and let go by Johnstown.

Connellsville has a hard schedule this week and Charleroi a comparatively easy one, which fact should help some in the local team's earnest striving for third place. The Cokers play Southside tonight and are at Johnstown Thursday. Charleroi has Washington tonight and is scheduled for Southside Saturday. Their hard game is with Uniontown here Friday.

Connellsville's 38-25 victory over Uniontown sounds hopeful. Wonder if we can't beat the Searians Friday?
